EDITORIAL

Respected Members,
The uncertainty compounded with reports from WHO, the third wave of Covid is likely to knock the doors of our country shortly. We have faced the first and second wave and are out of the trauma of financial, business losses apart from unrecoverable loss of our dears & nears.
We should take all precautions and advise all to follow the preventative measures as this menace can spread from any corner and atmosphere. The health care centres are also being kept ready as stand by in case of eventualities, specially to safe guard our children, who have not been vaccinated yet. We have faith in GOD and believe His kindness to the humanity.
